The University of Oregon Undergraduate Philosophy Club invites any interested undergraduate students to showcase their talents by submitting a philosophy paper to present in our upcoming annual conference. From now until the 20th of April we will be accepting abstracts and papers on any philosophical topic for presentation and discussion at the conference. Presentations will be between 30-45 minutes, followed by questions and discussion. If you wish to have additional time allotted for presentation let us know along with your submission and we will do our best to accommodate. We will announce the accepted papers no later than the 27th of April. The keynote speaker will be announced closer to the event, and updates will be made available through e-mail and the University of Oregon Philosophy Department website via the University of Oregon Undergraduate Philosophy blog.

Conference Date: Saturday, May 17th from 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Location TBA.

The paper should:
- Be no more than 3,000 words, or approximately 10 pages (or 500 word abstract)
- Include a cover page
- Include any works cited (you may choose to use endnotes or footnotes)
- Must be submitted electronically no later than MIDNIGHT the 20th OF APRIL

Please send questions/submissions to:
Philosophy Club Co-Presidents:
Benjamin Ryo Ogawa Aurora Laybourn-Candlish
ogawa@uoregon.edu aurora@uoregon.edu
BLOG: http://oregonuntergang.wordpress.com